TEN CENTS PER WEEK

LIVELY SESSION HELD BY SCHOOL TEACHERS TODAY

Rival Candidates For County
Superintendent Have Parliamentary Combat.

Feezor Opposes Resolution
and Talks Politics.

WATCH FOR PROF. HILLINGTON.

The first break in the tranquility of the McCracken County Teachers' institute came this morning when the report of the committee on resolutions was presented for adoption. One paragraph favored the election of the county school superintendent by the school teachers, and this brought forth a discussion of politics to which the fair school teachers listened interestedly, as if they were suffragettes.

The fourth paragraph of the resolution reads: "In order to remove as far as possible the school question from politics we advocate the nomination of the county school superintendent by the teachers at the annual institute next preceding his election." Each paragraph was adopted separately, and when this was read L. W. Feezor, the Democratic nominee for county school superintendent, gained the floor and advocated the selection of the nominees by the people, and incidentally making a speech about the Democratic party. L. H. Alexander, the Republican nominee for county school superintendent, arose and requested the chairman to stop the political speech, but nothing was done and Mr. Feezor continued his speech about the south remaining Democratic.

Before anybody could gain the floor after Feezor took his seat, it was moved that the institute adjourn until this afternoon, when the discussion was resumed.

The resolutions adopted were: Approving the new school law; endorsing the administration of Prof. S. J. Hillington as county school superintendent, favoring an amendment, restricting free tuition to the state normal schools to a person having a high school education or equivalent; approving the present rate of county school taxation; endorsing the action of the school improvement league in improving the schools, and thanking Prof. T. J. Conates, the instructor, for his efforts. The report was brought in by J. S. Raschdale, Dora Draffen and W. T. Lawrence.

Morning Session.
This morning's session was opened with prayer by the Rev. Rudolph Naylor, after which Judge William Marble made a talk on educating boys and girls. Judge Marble said he favored educating the children in the country and sending them to the city, rather than educating them in the city and then sending them to the country.

Yesterday afternoon the annual election of officers of the McCracken County School Improvement league was held. Mrs. C. E. Purrell addressed the institute. The following were elected: W. R. Davis, president; L. H. Alexander, secretary; Mrs. Bessie Billington, treasurer; and the following vice-presidents in the school districts: John Hovecamp, First; Miss Dora Druffen, Second; Henry Childress, Third; Kaloophio elah, Fourth; Charles Ferguson, Fifth; L. W. Feezor, Sixth.

Today closed the institute, and at the close Superintendent S. J. Hillington, who will resign his office, was presented with a watch by the teachers. Next year it is proposed to wait until autumn to hold the institute, as the warm weather was too severe for a crowded court room.

Son Searches For Murderer of His Father With Gun, But the Officers at Mayfield Prevent the Meeting

Sam Clark, Paroled Prisoner, Wanders Back to Scene of Crime and Nearly Pays Penalty With Own Life.

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 13. (Special.)—Armed with a pistol and a gun and vowing vengeance on the murderer of his father, Emmett Carney was held by the city officials yesterday afternoon until Sam Clark, who killed S. H. Carney several years ago, could escape from Mayfield. Carney seemed wild and had he met the slayer of his father there is no doubt there would have been trouble. Clark shot and killed Carney several years ago and was sent to the penitentiary, but was paroled by Governor Beckham on the condition that he would not return to Mayfield. Clark resides in Arkansas and yesterday for the first time since the trouble returned to his former home. Emmett Carney learned of his presence in the city and after arming himself searched for his father's slayer until taken in charge by the police.

Judge Reed Holds Laton Party in the Court Yard

Beneath the shade of the spreading Oaks on the lawn of the county court house Circuit Judge William Reed held a short session of court this morning to hear the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Attorney G. C. Blugild in an attempt to have Andrew Owens, colored, alias Dunning, alias Henry Albert, turned loose. The trial resulted with the refusal of the court and Owens was escorted back to the county jail with the rest of his allies.

Owens was arrested Wednesday by Patrolmen Henry Singers and Tobo Owen for violating the Illinois parole law. It was understood that a reward of $50 awaited his arrest, but nothing has been heard of it since. The negro refused to be taken back to Menard, Ill., where he was under parole from the Chester penitentiary. Requisition papers have been applied for and are expected in a few days.

Attorney Blugild instituted habeas corpus proceedings today in order to have him turned loose. The "lawn" session of court was attended by several lawyers and was a novelty to the county. Judge Reed went one bet-

Moors Gain Advantage.

Lisbon, Aug. 13.—According to dispatches from Melilla, the Moors have gained a big advantage over the Spanish troops and are now bombarding with cannon, Spaniards were driven from all the advanced posts to the inner fortifications. General Marlon, who was personally leading the troops, had a close call and was nearly cut off from his command. Losses on both sides are heavy. The attacking force is the largest yet against the garrison.

Despatches from eastern Spain said the revolt again has broken out in Ampurdens and Halafrugell districts, and a provisional republic is established. Troops from Barcelona are on the way there to quell the uprising.

JOE CANNOT AND TARIFF TARGETS FOR LAFOLETTE

Madison, Wis., Aug. 13.—The new tariff law and Speaker Cannon both were assailed by Senator LaFollette in this week's issue of LaFollette's Weekly. It says: "Tariff revision is intended to reduce rates, adding the consumer, who was being robbed by the Dingley tariff through the trusts. The Dingley law, just what the trusts wanted, stood pat. Congress may not have known what the trusts wanted, but it did exactly. Congress stood pat. The kind of revision denounced, promised and accepted and voted for and decreed at the polls was not even partially complied with. Cannon relegated to minor positions on 'joke' committees Republican congressmen who questioned his divine right to rule. Thus he was able to get his revenge, but it was costly, and the constituents had little voice. Cannon's revenge probably will cost him dearly."

Five Fured to Death.

Hancock, Mich., Aug. 13.—Five lives were lost in a fire in a dwelling house here last night. The dead: Mrs. John Dionne, Edward Dionne, aged 8 years; Peter Dionne, an infant; Amilia Dionne, aged 12; a girl named Racine.

EXPRESS COMPANY ROBBED AT WINGO WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Jewelry Stolen and Two Suspects Are Arrested at Fulton.

Money in Bag Stolen From Insurance Office.

NO CLEW LEFT BY THE THIEF.

As a result of the robbery of the American Express company's office at the Wingo depot Wednesday night, two negroes are being held by the Fulton police awaiting the arrival of C. J. Abbott, route agent of the express company. Mr. Abbott left this afternoon for Fulton to investigate the robbery further.

The robbery was pulled off some time Wednesday night, and from the work of the thieves they were green at their game. The contents of four trays of jewelry worth about $95 were taken, while two trays were left untouched. Other articles missed were a jug containing one gallon of whiskey, 48 cents in pennies and a box of chewing gum. The trays of jewelry had been shipped to parties at Sedalia, but refused and were sent back to the Wingo office and being held until orders were received. The express office was completely ransacked and papers torn from the desks, drawers and shelves.

The discovery was made the following morning by W. D. Dunn, the agent there, and he notified Mr. Abbott in Paducah. Believing the robbers went towards Fulton the police there were notified and bloodhounds were asked for to be put on the trail. Mr. Abbott received word this morning that two suspected negroes had been arrested there and he left this afternoon to investigate.

Money Snak Stolen.
A money sack containing $23 was stolen from the desk of Lee Brown, local manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the office rooms in the Campbell building, on Broadway.

Mr. Brown had just finished counting the money, which consisted of $11 in paper bills and $12 in silver, and was alone in the office, the remainder of the force having gone. He tied the sack together and placed it on his desk and then stepped into the hall for a few seconds. On returning he was astonished at the bag being gone and spread the alarm. There was no one on the second floor except Arthur Woolfolk, the faithful colored janitor. Woolfolk said he thought he heard some one go into the office after Brown had left, but paid no particular attention. The thief was not seen and there is no clew as to his identity. The robbery was immediately reported to the police, who are investigating.

Largest Force in History of I. C. Shops Will be Employed When Fifty Additional Men Authorized are On

Car Department Will be Increased to 374, Making
Total of 916 Men in Whole Works.

Fifty more employees in the car department of the Illinois Central railroad shops have been authorized, and now the largest force is employed in the history of the shops. When the fifty men are placed to work the car department will have 374 employees while the entire shops are now working 916 men. The increase will be felt in the September payroll as the monthly pay roll of the shops now amounts to $70,000, while the expense for material and supplies make it cost $100,000 a month to operate the shops.

Master Mechanic J. H. Nash received the additional increase of 50 men and he has experienced some difficulty in securing men for the jobs. Everything is booming at the shops. Both car and locomotive departments are running full blast, and the railroad is rapidly getting its equipment into condition to handle a heavy fall business when the crops are ready to move. In the locomotive department 118 machinists are employed.

No permanent appointment of the general foreman of the locomotive shop will be made for three weeks, according to Master Mechanic Nash, who will fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of J. F. Walker. At present James Hofflich is the temporary general foreman.

I. C. Hospital Board.

This morning the annual election of the directors of the Illinois Central railroad hospital was held. No changes were made in the directors and only the routine business was disposed of. H. S. Kelley, of the machinists, J. H. Cockill, of the carmen, L. L. Coffey, of the engineers, J. W. Whedon, of the conductors and J. McNamara, of Princeton, were recalled as directors, representing the employees. A. H. Egan, of Louisville, J. J. Gaven, of Fulton, J. M. Egan, of Fulton, J. H. Nash, Dr. D. G. Murrell were present at the meeting.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

Stevedores of Gothenburg Are the Last to Resume Old Places.

Stockholm, Aug. 13.—The striking workmen of Sweden continue today to return to work. The stevedores of Gothenburg are the latest to resume and the foreigners taken to Gothenburg to fill their places are being returned to their homes. Out of a total of 406,000 workmen engaged in agriculture and the railroad service, 285,762 are on strike, but small groups of these men are continually returning to their labors.

It is expected that the saw mill hands will be compelled shortly, through lack of funds, to return to their places.

They are in a bad way; they have issued an appeal for funds, headed "Starvation is at the door," and are begging food throughout the rural districts.

DRUGGISTS WITH DOCTORS TO MEET AT THEIR PICNIC

A joint meeting of the McCracken County Medical society and the Druggists' association of Paducah, will be held next Wednesday at Cecil Grove, four miles from the city on the Cairo road, at which time the important subject of "Improper Use of Drugs by the Laity" will be discussed. The relation between the drug dealer and the doctor will also be a subject of interest. Dr. Vernon Blythe, secretary of the medical society will read a paper along these lines. Other papers will be read also.

The meeting in September will conclude the monthly sessions of the society which have been held during the summer months. The regular weekly meetings will be held beginning the third Wednesday in September. The summer assemblies have proved a success and all have been out-of-door sessions.

Only a few of the 300 buildings remain. The fire engine house was one of the first to burn, and although there was plenty of water there was no apparatus to fight the flames. Within fifteen minutes the entire town was doomed. Relief expeditions are being organized in nearby towns. The Sussex Title Trust and Title company was destroyed, but the vaults containing $90,000 is intact. The mansion of former Governor Pender was destroyed when the last embers were quenched by a down pour of rain this morning. The loss is estimated at nearly half a million.

CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE SENT TO QUELL STRIKERS

WRIGHT'S RECORD IN ONE RESPECT IS BROKEN TODAY

Mineola, L. I., Aug. 13.—In a cross-country flight, far exceeding Wright's flight in the danger of the country traversed, C. E. Willard, flying in Glenn Curtiss' bi-plane today, sailed twelve miles in nineteen and a half minutes, passed over three towns, crossed five sets of telegraph wires, passed over eight public roads, made three circles of the Motor parkway.

Willard ascended at 5:20 this morning in a light breeze and made a couple of turns over the Hempstead plains. He passed over Garden City, 150 feet high. Then he flew over Wheathury and Hicksville, five and a half miles from the start. Making a turn over the town, he started homeward. His descent was fifteen feet from his ascent. He said he intended to remain up for the record but his magnet worked poorly and he wanted to land before he had trouble.

WILL RECOMMEND CHANGES.

The specifications will be held until the specifications for the new fire department station, east of the city hall on Kentucky avenue, are completed and bids for both structures will then be invited. Mr. Lassiter expects to have those completed by next Tuesday and, after the committee have accepted them, the bids will be asked for and the contracts let immediately.

The committee last night reconsidered its recommendation of the acceptance of the bid of the E. Howard Clock company, of Boston, Mass., for the repair of the city hall and Baptist church clocks, and recommended to the council that new bids be invited.

Present last night were: Aldermen Sherrill, Hank and Lackey and Councilmen Wilson, Wanner, Hanlin, Oehlschlaeger and Van Meter.

Inspection of Schools.

A special committee from the city school board accompanied by City Health Officer H. P. Sights and Superintendent J. A. Carnagey will conclude their inspection of the school buildings this afternoon, the committee making a written report to the school board at the next regular meeting. Several buildings were gone over thoroughly this morning in reference to its sanitation, and although Dr. Sights declined to state conditions of the buildings, it is supposed that there will be room for improvement.

Dr. Sights said that the members of the committee showed every inclination to make radical sanitary improvements, where needed, and would act with the city health board in bringing this about. There are to be several changes and it is believed the school board will concur in such recommendations as the committee may suggest.

The committee is composed of Trustees Karne, Winstead and Frey Hoyor, superintendent of buildings. It is the object to have all of the school property perfectly sanitary by the opening of school in September, and sanitation is a vital point in the public school system.

bushe's to the acre. Price ranging from 10c to 75c per bushel.

DARK TOBACCO.—There was a large acreage of dark tobacco planted, but a large portion has been destroyed by the heavy rains and storms in many counties of the district and showing at the present time not more than twenty-five per cent of a crop with the prospects bad for this on account of the quality being bad, the yield will be cut in half.

BURLEY TOBACCO.—The largest crop has been planted than was ever planted in the district before. Reports of this month show that the crop will be cut for below an average on account of so much rain, causing many acres to be abandoned entirely, and others not to make more than half crop or less, and what is saved will be light and not yield more than seven or eight hundred pounds per acre.

RYE.—Reports show a very small acreage of rye harvested, making a yield of about nine bushels per acre on an average, and selling from 80c to $1 per bushel.

BARLEY.—There is very little barley raised in the state, but reports show that what is raised is doing nicely.

HEMP.—Hemp is doing well, price good, selling at 6c to 7c per pound.

POTATOES.—There is one of the largest acreages of potatoes ever planted in the state, and the yield is and will be about 100 to 150 bushels per acre, selling from 60c to $1.50 per bushel.

FRUITS.—The report on apples varies very much; some show a very large crop, while others show a small one. So on an average we might think that there will be a small yield of apples, price being very high is another reason why we should think the crop a short one.

PEACHES.—Peaches are not doing what they should, being full of worms, have fallen off cutting the crop shorter than it would have been had they been sound. Prices very high, selling from $2 to $2.50 per bushel.

WHEAT.—Conditions are very bad at the present time, there being so much rain it has caused a great portion to sprout in the stack or shock causing the quality to be very poor. The average yield will be about ten bushels per acre, selling at from $1.15 to $1.50 per bushel.

CORN.—There seems to have been one of the largest corn crops planted that we have had in many years, with conditions fairly good owing to so much rain retarding some fields not being ploughed more than once, but with rain at the right time, this will make a fair yield but of a poor quality, being light and chaffy. Corn is now selling higher than was ever known before, prices ranging from 80c to $1.00 per bushel.

OATS.—Oats have suffered greatly from the continued wet weather, causing them to fall down and a great many not being harvested on that account. The average yield of the oats cut being about twenty

World's Highest Bear Rug.
 In the August World Magazine appears a photograph of what is claimed to be the world's largest skin rug. It measures nine feet four inches in length, from end of nose to tip of tail, and nearly eight feet two inches in width. The skin is that of the Kutlak bear, the largest carnivorous animal in the world, and now exceedingly scarce. The animal was shot by Mr. A. S. Reed, the famous English sportsman, and the skin has just been secured by America and form one of the trophies in the National Collection of Heads, Horns and Skins, which is now being got together.

NEW FACE FOR PAPER MONEY

GENERAL REDESIGNING PLAN
BY TREASURY OFFICIALS.

Cleveland On $10 Note—Less Scrolling Work Proposed by the Department.

MAY ABOLISH THE $2 BILL

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Several important changes in the designs on the paper money of the country are to take place soon.

Secretary MacVeagh, Assistant Secretary Norton, and Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing have under consideration a general scheme for systematizing the designs of all issues of paper money in such a manner that the same portraits and emblems will appear on all notes of the same denomination.

It also is proposed that each of the designs shall be so distinctive that no confusion as to the denomination signified shall occur. A change in the size of the government's paper currency also is under consideration.

Cleveland Picture on $10 Bill.

It can be stated authoritatively that a portrait of the late Grover Cleveland soon is to appear on all ten dollar bills. This plan has been in contemplation before, and practically was ordered by George H. Cortelyou, formerly secretary of the treasury. Secretary MacVeagh, upon entering office, held the order up, not on account of political considerations, but in order to permit the question of a general redesigning of the paper money of the country to be taken up.

The director of the bureau of engraving and printing has completed tentative new designs to go upon all the paper money of national issue, such as silver certificates, gold certificates, and treasury notes, and they now are up for approval by Assistant Secretary Norton, who has the matter mainly in charge.

He already has definitely decided to recommend Cortelyou's order relating to the imprint of the portrait of ex-President Cleveland upon all ten dollar bills.

May Abolish $2 Note.

Distinctive designs for one dollar, five dollar, twenty dollar, and fifty dollar and perhaps those of even higher denominations, have been prepared. The two dollar bill may be abolished. Its fate now hangs in the balance, there hav-

SUMMER HAIR DRESSING

Parlsan Sage Cools the Scalp and Removes Unpleasant Odors.

The disagreeable and repulsive odors that come from the hair in summer are caused by dandruff.

Dandruff is caused by microbes which are hard to kill, but which can be killed by Parlsan Sage, the quick-acting, money-back hair tonic.

Today it is unnecessary for any man or woman to have dandruff. Dandruff can never be cured until the small, aggravating and indomitable dandruff germ is conquered and destroyed.

And millions of dandruff germs have been destroyed, thanks to the great scientist and dermatologist who gave to the world Parlsan Sage, the only real dandruff cure and hair grower the world has ever known.

If you have dandruff, Parlsan Sage will cure you in two weeks, or your money back.

But besides ridding the scalp of dandruff, Parlsan Sage is guaranteed to stop falling hair and itching of the scalp. It keeps the scalp cool and clean in summer. It is not a dye. It is a prime favorite with women of refinement. It makes the hair soft, lustrous and beautiful in a week, and is not sticky or greasy.

ing been many complaints directed against it, owing to its tendency to stealthily slip in with its one dollar brothers and cause woe. If the two dollar bill is retained, it is certain that its design will be such as to make it flash out from a pile of one dollar or five dollar bills with a prominence that will permit of no mistake in its handling.

The treasury officials are seeking suggestions from artists of the bureau of engraving and printing, and from artists and experts outside the government service. They even have sent to Europe for new ideas by which the paper money may be improved in appearance.

Some treasury officials are inclined to favor even a more radical change, and recommend that paper money be reduced to about the size of French and Italian notes or smaller denominations. These notes are about three-fifths the size of the American kind, and are more convenient to handle.

Would Cut Down Expense.

By reducing the size of the money a considerable saving could be effected in the expense of getting them out, and this is a consideration with the present administration, which has adopted a policy of small economies in all departments with the view of bringing the government expenses down to the revenues and thus wiping out the present deficit.

In general it is the purpose of the treasury officials to adopt new designs for different denominations and classes of paper money that are simpler and more artistic than the present ones. It is the feeling of the officials and of the artists that the present designs are altogether too elaborate, with too much scroll work, etc. More plain surface, they believe, would greatly improve the appearance of the bills. Many new precautions are to be taken against counterfeiting.

Ex-President McKinley's portrait already is carried on bank notes of certain denominations and therefore will hardly be used to decorate the government issues. The portraits of other deceased presidents and prominent Americans, however, may be looked for, bearing in mind that they will appear upon all classes of currency of an equal denomination, whether treasury note, silver certificates, gold certificates, or greenback.

Change in Size Causes Concern.

The matter of change in the size of the notes is giving the most concern, for it is realized that if this takes place the issues of bank notes eventually will have to conform. Inasmuch as $500,000,000 in bank notes have been printed recently and stored away, the change in the size is somewhat of a question to consider.

The Secret of Long Life.

A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. It's a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at all druggists.

Wickliffe, Ky., Aug. 13.—Ernest Elmendorf and Sam Evitts, charged with the robbery of the Bandana bank, were released late yesterday afternoon on peremptory instructions. The indictment against Evitts was field away with leave to reappear, while the bond of Will Husbands was forfeited. John Hulger is now serving a one year term in the penitentiary. The commonwealth finished its evidence yesterday afternoon in the case against Elmendorf, and Attorney Hal Corbett proved that the defendant he dismissed, which Judge Hugg upheld.

WEARS SAME AMOUNT OF CLOTHES YEAR AROUND.

Wearing four pairs of overalls, four suits of underwear, two pairs of socks and plentifully equipped with handkerchiefs, Frank Sands, a quaint character, has returned to the county sanitarium to remain until cool weather. Sands left the sanitarium last year, and has wandered all over the state of Illinois, but failed to find work. His shoes were worn out, and he was almost exhausted when he reached the sanitarium, but his face bore a smile. Sands is a quaint character, as in the summer he wears the same amount of clothing he does in the winter. He has always worn enough clothing to fill a small wardrobe, and claims that it does not feel uncomfortable this warm weather. Sands is 75 years old and formerly worked for the city.

TESTING EFFECT OF SHELLS

Gunery Practice for Purpose of Important Experiment.

Toulon, Aug. 13.—The minister of marine, Admiral De la Payre, is greatly pleased with the results of the gunnery tests being conducted by the armored cruiser Conde, with the battleship Iena, which was badly damaged by an explosion in 1907, as a target. The experiments will be continued until September 15 on an elaborate scale. The most important deductions from them will be the determination of the exact value of the destructive effect of shells of all compositions. The fire of the Conde will be directed against the forward part of the Iena which has been adequately prepared to prevent sinking.

Origin of Tennis.

In an illustrated description of the game of tennis "Simplicissimus" says: "Like all good things, lawn tennis is of English origin. Marie Stuart, while a prisoner, was compelled to beat carpets which were hung over a rail. Not contented with this humiliation, her sister, Queen Elizabeth, once threw a dead mouse at the unfortunate Marie while the latter was beating carpets. The little defiant rodent was caught on Marie's heel and sent back over the rail, and was returned to her by means of a flail in the hand of Elizabeth, and thus the game of tennis originated."

Personally appeared before me

this July 10, 1909, R. D. MacMillen, business manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of June, 1909, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Daily Thought.

Care keeps his watch in every old man's eye.—Shakespeare.

Friday, the thirteenth.

The name of Chang Yin Tang, the minister-elect from China, has a sound like the industrial awakening of the eastern empire.

Governor Beckham has set a good example for other public men to save all newspaper clippings concerning themselves; for they may become editors themselves after a while, or have some other weapon of revenge

thrust into their hands.

It is always so, that some unwise

or greedy person spoils the good things of life. When young Persch, the curb stone broker, got away

with $110,000 in copper securities

the public thought he had done something original; but it was learned he had done only something indiscreet, and brokers have been in the habit of stealing and using securities from time immemorial.

Thus another comfortable habit of getting rich off other people's property

will cease.

BACK TO THE FARM.

Back to the farm!

That warning comes to the ears of the city man. It is the voice of

to some other use developing the country. It is a great question that this congress is dealing with, and it affects every one of us. By and bye, the land will be cut into small areas everywhere, as it is in those irrigation belts, and intense farming, with reduced taxes, will result in making farm work less fatiguing, more attractive and much more profitable.

On this subject the Owensboro

Inquirer says:

"Mr. J. J. Hill, the railroad magnate, says that the people are flocking to the cities in such numbers that not enough of them are left on the farms to raise cotton and wheat sufficient for the needs of all the people. What Mr. Hill says is true. Too many boys have left the farm for employment in the city. Of course a small percentage of them have succeeded in the city, but the great majority of them are in the ranks of the common laborer, and no common laborer in the city can prosper half so well as the copper or farm hand. When the common laborer of the city pays house rent and buys food for his family he has nothing left. He must of necessity live in a small house in the crowded tenement districts and often his family goes poorly fed and poorly clad. Not a few become dependent upon charity, a thing almost wholly unknown among the agricultural classes."

"Even the young man with no family to support can not prosper as a common laborer in the city, as he may on the farm. In the city he receives low wages, and after paying his board, laundry bills and other necessary expenses he has but little left upon which to dress. As a farm laborer he receives his board and laundering free. He is even furnished a horse to ride or drive on Sunday and on occasions of a social affair in his neighborhood. Horse hire in the city is too expensive for the common laborer, except once in a great while."

"If you left your country home, young man, to accept the task of a common laborer in the city, go back to the farm; go back to the farm."

JUSTICE FOR WHOM?

The Owensboro Messenger is right when it says "if it is desired that lynchings should cease, then not only quick justice, but adequate justice must be meted out"; but not in the way the Messenger means. Lynchings take place, because the lynchers know that quick and adequate justice will not be meted out to them. Since lynchers themselves profess "quick" and "adequate justice" for the crimes of the lynched, the Messenger's argument falls of its own weight when it comes to the deterring effect of lynchings on crime. We do not for a moment believe that speedy justice for a criminal in a court of law, assured from the beginning, would deter his would-be lynchers; but we do firmly believe that the certainty of "quick and adequate justice" meted out for the crime of lynching, will have a prompt and lasting effect on that form of popular amusement.

THE PUBLIC FORUM.

Crime Stories in Newspapers.

It is a common complaint when newspapers are under discussion that they devote too much space to crime stories. That these complaints are not justified is demonstrated very thoroughly, says the Courier-Journal, by an article written and copyrighted by Arthur I. Street, publisher of Street's Pandex of the News, in Chicago. Mr. Street goes into an extensive and careful analysis of the matter published last year by the leading newspapers of the country.

In his summary, which embraces thousands of items handled by tele-graphic press associations and by special correspondents, Mr. Street shows a total of 443 items relating to leading criminal cases. Items relat-ing to other topics are given as fol-lows: Foreign news, 2,280; con-gress, 1,140; railroads, 679; Roose-velt, 550; Taft, 450; banks, 396; Democratic party, 336; educational, 325; Germany, 317; Republican party, 305.

Of minor crimes there is a show-ing of 500 items. These relate to suicides, murders, robberies, embe-zlements, arson and various other events having a criminal feature. They, of course, are legitimate items, such as news papers cannot ignore in their capacity as purveyors to the public demand for news. It will be noted, however, that when these minor crimes are added to the num-ber of reports dealing with the lead-ing criminal cases there is still an overwhelming majority of items relat-ing to non-criminal news matters. Of his itemized record Mr. Street says:

"It shows beyond any possible cavil that the amount of serious and important matters printed in the daily press of the country far out-weighs the sensational and the super-ficial. It demonstrates that the news-papers are ever more alive to things that make for real progress than they are to crimes of any of the baser evils of society. And it thor-oughly substantiates the claims of those who understand the newspaper best that it is the most compre-hensive, valuable and effective factor in modern human advancement."

Mr. Street probably could take no note of the many thousands of items of strictly local concern that appear in the papers, items relating to com-mercial, industrial or material im-provements, to social and church affairs, and those which are purely personal—all of which tell of things which tend to elevate mankind. Nevertheless, as the Courier-Journal says in conclusion: "Mr. Street has done an important service to the newspapers and to the public in his compilation. It will remove an erroneous impression from many a casual reader and will moderate the asperity of many a carping critic."

AND WIFE DYING.Because She Wanted to Go Visiting
He Emptied Revolver Into Her Body.

TERRIBLE WOUNDS INFLICTED

In a jealous rage Sam Adams, col-ored, shot and fatally wounded his wife, Maggie Adams, 34 years old, last night at their home, 808 South Tenth street. Three shots were fired each taking effect, and Adams es-caped through the Illinois Central railroad yards. Although a vigilant search has been kept for him in this city and surrounding towns, he is still at large.

It is said that when Adams went home last night his wife was prepar-ing to go visiting and he became angered and picked up a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson revolver. As the woman turned away the first shot struck her in the back near the spine and tearing its way through, came out at the abdomen. The other two shots struck her in the right breast lodging in the lung. One ball was located and extricated.

The alarm was turned in to the police by the firemen at No. 4 station Tenth and Jones streets. No trace of Adams could be found, although he was last seen going towards the rail-road yards. Drs. Van J. Davis and S. H. George, colored, were called and attended the woman little hope is held for her recovery. She was alive this afternoon.

Adams wore a dark pair of trousers, a derby hat and no coat. He is low and heavy set, a mulatto with a long knife scar on his right cheek. He was formerly a porter for the I. C. railroad between Paducah and Cairo. A short time ago he came back from Mississippi, where he had finished serving a sentence for an at-tempt to get into there. The author-ities at Mayfield, Memphis, Cairo and other surrounding points have been asked to aid in the search for him.

Railroad Man Killed.
Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 13.—J. A. Engleman, freight agent of the Queen & Crescent railroad at Kings Mountain, Ky., was assassinated in the office of the company there some time after midnight. His jewelry was taken and his pockets rifled, but a considerable sum of money belonging to the railroad company was left un-touched in a drawer. Engleman was dozing in his chair, between trains. A shot was fired through the open window, striking him in the back of the head. The body rolled out of the chair and on to the floor, where it was found by the night constable at 3 o'clock. Sheriff HHS. of Stanford, was summoned and put blood hounds on the trail.

—ART TREASURES BURN.
—While the Ohio brought in 227 bales of hay for this port today, she also had a large amount of produce and miscellaneous freight.

—New York, Aug. 13.—It is now confirmed that many priceless heirlooms and valuable works of art were consumed in the fire which destroyed the home of Mrs. C. D. Alexander, on Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J., last week. A painting by Tonyea, of a Dutch farm scene more than 400 years of age, was one of the art treasures lost. Among the valuable papers which were burned was the original deed by Queen Anne to Gov. Carteret, the first English executive of New Jersey, for the northern half of that state.

Progressive euchre was enjoyed yesterday at the Elks' club as it was India's day, and the big club house was thrown open to the fair sex and the visitors in the city. Ten tables were filled during the afternoon and everybody had an enjoyable time despite the fact that the sun beamed hot. The first prize was won by Mrs. George Yopp, who presented the handpainted bonbon dish to Mrs. Kelley, of Nashville. BALLINGER AND PINCHOT CLASH

CHIEF FORESTER DEFENDS THE ROOSEVELT POLICIES.

Secretary Hallinger Says He Would Conserve the Water Power in His Own Way.

MR. TAFT WILL BE EMPIRE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—Developments at Spokane in the Pin-chot-Ballinger controversy over conservation matters have made it apparent to most of the officials who are left in Washington that the question as to who is running the department of the interior is about to be settled.
Secretary R. A. Hallinger propounded the question in an offhand way in the west recently. It is believed here that there is on hand a fight to the finish between himself and Gifford Pinchot to determine the answer, and that somebody's official career will be terminated as a result of the row.

Assuming that Mr. Pinchot is after the scalp of the secretary of the interior, the only question that seems to be much in doubt is whether the former will leave the forestry service in case Mr. Hallinger's head does not fall.

Some See Ballinger's Finish.
In certain quarters the opinion
was expressed that Secretary Ballinger would be unable to refute the allegations that the water-power sites of Montana practically had been turned over to a monopoly, and that he would be called upon summarily to resign by President Taft.

The conclusion of more sober minds and persons of an investigating turn, however, is that Mr. Hallinger will serve out President Taft's term as his secretary of the interior. They reason that he is a careful and conservative lawyer, and undoubtedly has taken no step without the most careful consideration of the consequences involved. From excellent authority also comes the assurance that President Taft has been behind the secretary of the interior in every one of his moves, and that it is far from the intention of the former to allow himself to be stampered by charges against the interior department unless they are accompanied by complete substantiation.

Hallinger Will Defend Position.

Secretary Hallinger's defense of his course, which is expected in his speech at Spokane tomorrow, undoubtedly will contain the assertion that no valuable water-power site which was not in the ownership of an individual or corporation when he assumed the office of secretary of the interior has passed since into such ownership or control. He will assert that practically every water-power site of any value belonging to the government in the west now is safeguarded until congress sees fit to hold them permanently or turn them over to individuals or corporations for exploitation.

Denies Pinchot Charges.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 13.—Hillard Ballinger, secretary of the interior, before leaving for Billings, Mont., where he will meet the congressional committee on irrigation said:

"I have information from Washington from the public records that not a single power site or dam site was taken by private individuals during the time that one million acres were thrown open to public entry last April." This was in answer to the charge that land had been taken by
"dumpees," acting for the water power "trust."

Some See Ballinger's Finish.

No other medicine for women's ills has received such wide-spread and im-qualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weak-

periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely
through the period of change of life.
It costs but little to try Lydia E.

as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth moun-

PUNISHMENT FOR OFFICERS

BOARD OF INVESTIGATION AT MANILA REPORTS.

Resignations Demanded, Dismissal
Recommended and Reduction of Rank for Another.

THEY CAUSED DAVAO MUTINY

Manila, Aug. 13.—The high ranking constabulary board which sat
from July 26 to August 6, investigating the Davao mutiny, which occured June 6, submitted today a report, recommending severe punishment for four of the officers who had charge of the mutinous company.

The board examined numerous witnesses including several of the captured mutineers, and its report is approved by Brig.-Gen. Harry Lindholtz, chief of the Philippine constabulary.

The investigators demand the resignation of Capt. Platka and Lieut.
Dunsworth, on the ground that they are lacking in the proper qualifications for officers, and recommend the dismissal of Lieut. Debeline for unjustly punishing privates before the mutiny and for abandoning his post.

The report also recommends the reduction of Lieut. Golconda to the bottom of the list of lieutenants, and his suspension for a month. Special leniency was shown in the case of Golconda on account of his youth, and the bad example set for him by his superior officers.

A portion of the second company of native constabulary stationed at Davao in the island of Mindanao, mutined on the night of June 6, and attacked and captured the company's quarters. After a three-hours' fight one American was killed and four wounded. The mutineers escaped to the mountains. Most of them were captured one month later.

WATCHDOG OF THE TREASURY QUILTS

REPRESENTATIVE MANN WILL NO LONGER OBJECT.

Illinois Congressman Placed at Head of Important Committee of House.

HAS MADE EXCELLENT RECORD

Washington, Aug. 13. (United Press)—Unless precedent is to be disregarded, there will be at least one void at the next session of the house that will be mighty hard to fill. It is the office of watchdog of legislation.

Congressman James R. Mann, of Illinois, has filed this job fearlessly, constantly and with fine discrimination, for years. The claims he has blocked and the bills of shady color
that he has held up at the moment that they were about to be passed are numbered by the hundred. Mann was keen as a hawk in watching legislation and as relentless.
His times of special activity were on days when members were privileged under the rules to call up bills, usually local in application, in which they were particularly interested, to unanimous consent or under suspension of the rules. On such days bills of this class are rushed through by the score.
Many are half-baked products of legislation and nearly all of them aim to take more or less of a hack
at the government treasury.

On those days Mann shone and his "Mr. Speaker, I object," struck a chill to the marrow of many a member who had wriggled to the line
some bill for which he could offer no substantial defense. Usually the member attacked asked Mann to state the grounds of his objection and the inquirer always found the goods ready for delivery. Mann either gave adequate reasons or he lifted the lid of his desk and produced reports bearing on the case. His resources were unlimited, and it appeared as though he had spotted every rotten apple that came to the legislative process. Members whose hopes were blasted by objections
scowled at Mann and thought things, but others, who favored clean legislation, were glad to have him perform the drudgery involved in investigating the bills. The work required long hours of study, and midnight often found Mann engrossed in his task. It is common talk at the capitol that to some extent, at least,
he had the co-operation of Speaker Cannon. Every speaker confides to some extent in a member on the floor
upon whom he depends for the blocking of bills that cover some selfish design not appearing on the surface.

During all this time Mann has had the chairmanship of a small committee, but he has been practically a free lance. Now he has been placed by the speaker at the head of the government committee on Interstate and foreign commerce and the important problems presented to him there will probably require all the time he has for study. Such has been the way with other objects.

The house will therefore lose the greatest objector that has adorned its membership in many years. There have been plenty of cranks and dyspeptics and philanthropists who objected indiscriminately to everything
open to objection under the rules,
but Mann objected with discrimination.

Cures Baby's Summer Ills—FREE

The mother should watch her baby very carefully these hot days. If it refuses to play and to eat, if it is peevish and crying, look to the action of its bowels, for there lies the basis of health. Be careful of its diet. The food and water are germ laden. The fruit is too often over-ripe or unripe. If it has any indication of sickness, either in the form of constipation or diarrhea, give it a reliable tonic laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This remedy is a standard in thousands of American homes for just such purposes. It is a favorite with children because its taste is pleasant, and it never gripes. It is the one remedy best suited to the care of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, sick headache, summer complaint, etc. It is equally as good for grown people, and we know thousands who no longer use strong salts, purgative waters, tablets, pills and such things, but take the sure, more gentle and pleasant DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle. The entire family can use it, and as these ailments arise suddenly the head of the house should see to it that a bottle of DR.
CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is always at hand.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and want to make a test of it before buying the regular size, may get their druggist, can write him or write to the Dr. Caldwell Medicine Co., 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., to send them a small bottle of the syrup. The sample will be sent to your house free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. And if the new remedy does not suit you, you can return it without cost. And if it does, write a letter to the Dr. Caldwell Medicine Co., 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., and give your best MEDICAL ADVICE, and you will have a bottle of the syrup sent to you for nothing. Women who have children should send for DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN at once, as the doctor's advice on diet, hygiene, etc., is not worth a very important subject. The address is Dr. W. D. Caldwell, 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Native of France and Widow of Confederate Veteran Will Be Buried at Henderson.

Mrs. Zoe Malloure, 75 years old,
of 609 Campbell street, died last night at 11 o'clock of general debility. The family was at the bedside when the end came. Mrs. Mal-loure was a native of France and was born in Paris, March 23, 1833.
She came to this country at the age of two years with her parents, locating at Henderson. She lived there and later married Mr. C. D. Mal-loure, a Confederate soldier, who was first lieutenant of Company B, Tenth Kentucky cavalry. In March, 1882, they moved to Paducah.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hamlin, of this city and a son,
Mr. J. C. Malloure, of Caruthersville,
Mo. She is survived by two brothers, Mr. Seraph Semolin, of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. John Semolin, of Carmel, Ill., and also several grandchildren. She was a devout member of the Catholic church. The remains will be held here until word is received from relatives and will then be taken to Henderson for burial in the family graveyard.

VETERANS AT LOUISVILLE.

Two Thousand Attend Opening of Confederate Cemetery.

Louisville, Miss., Aug. 13.—About 2,000 people attended the opening ceremonies of the Confederate cemetery in Louisville. The entire program was carried through without a flaw, and the event is said to be the most successful in the history of the city.

Especially interesting were the addresses of Col. W. A. Montgomery and Mayor A. Y. Woodward. The music rendered by the Confederate club was inspiring, and the Weir brass band contributed greatly to the pleasure of the day. At the harbinger twenty minutes and fifteen minutes furnished meat for the crowd, and the citizens attending with well-filled baskets provided a feast for the crowd. Rev. Richardson was master of ceremonies.

"What shall I write about?" asked the reporter of the busy editor.
"Right about facts," replied the editor.

And taking him at his word, the reporter wrote an article on the scene of the commemoration.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CURE FOLLOWED YEAR OF AGONY

Intense Itching Eczema Drove Him
Nearly to Despair—Chief Surgeon of a London Hospital Called It Worst Case He Had Ever Seen—Got Little or No Relief Until

CUTICURA STOPPED HIS UNBEARABLE TORTURE

"About four years ago, in London, I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles and feet. The same, in a few days, was the case with my arms and scalp. I could hardly keep from scratching, which, I must hardly say, in a day or two, was a large red patches appeared, with little in a mation and a few days, thousands of small red pimples formed. On becoming dry, these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so and was an out-patient for a month more, the chief surgeon saying, 'I never saw such a bad case of eczema. But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I came to feel that I almost gave up in despair. On coming to this country I heard so many accounts of cures by Cuticura Remedies, that I resolved, as a last resource, to give them a trial. This was after suffering agonies for twelve months, and right glad am I that I did so, for I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with a liberal use of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Resolvent Pills and am now thankful to say that after using three sets of the Remedies, I was completely cured. I can only add that should one be suffering as I did, I hope they will do as I did, and I am sure of the results. Henry Scarle, 2022 Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 10, 1907."

CHINA APPEALS TO THE POWERS

RAILROAD AGGRESSION STRAT- EGIC, NOT ECONOMIC.

Circular Note Sets Forth That No
One Should Occupy Privileged Position in Manchuria.

SAYS JAPS VIOLATED TREATY

Brussels, Aug. 13.—The Chinese board of foreign affairs has telegraphed to the Chinese legation here the text of China's circular note to the powers, dated Aug. 11, in which the government upholds its attitude in the question of the Antung-Mukden railroad.

After tracing the history of this question and pointing out that China made many concessions to Japan, who still tried to throw upon China's shoulders the responsibility for the delay in beginning the work, the note declares Japan's interest in the line to be entirely strategic and in no sense economic.

"Japan has sought unjustified aggression," the note declares.

"Already in the question of South Manchuria she has outlined on several occasions the territorial rights of China, and she is trying to secure, little by little, new rights not specified in existing treaties."

"In the present case the attack on China's rights is flagrant. China, like Japan, now addresses herself to the powers. She is conscious that she has defended not only her own legitimate rights, but the veritable interests of the powers against the previsions of Japan."

Treaty is Violated.

Continuing, the note sets forth that Japan, in announcing that she would take up the construction of this line without further negotiations, went outside the treaty of 1905, which stipulated that China should have the right to police the railroad and survey its construction. That China was inclined to be conciliatory is shown by the fact that she accepted the proposal to widen the tracks from narrow to standard gauge, and agreed to certain changes in the permanent line.

In conclusion the note says:

"The interest of the powers is that no one shall occupy a privileged position in Manchuria. China will continue as heretofore to be inspired by her conscience of right, in spirit of fidelity to existing treaties. She refuses to grant to Japan the right to place new troops in China and exercise police functions in China. But in these negotiations China will continue to show patience and magnanimity."

No Cordelia, stays do not make a woman staid.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it called a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea," made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

A PSYCHOLOGICAL INTRUSION.

(Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.)

No one, excepting the sick restored to health, has reason to feel more thankful for that wonderful advance science has made within the last ten or twenty years than I. But right here in the beginning I must break away from my subject to tell a story.

Margaret May chided me by what I consider the higher traits. She was a sober girl of an intellectual type, with excellent principles and elevated ideals. I am not a man to be pleased with a gay, frolicsome girl, however kind hearted, however winning. It was, therefore, natural that I should yield to the characteristics of Margaret. We became engaged, and every thing looked well for our future happiness when my fiancée began to show a succession of singular changes. One evening when I went to see her she bounded into the room like a hoiden, threw her arms about my neck, kissed me seven times in rapid succession, and, beginning with "You bad boy," upbraided me for not having come earlier. When I asked her for what she had wished me, she said that a circus had come to town, and she was "dying" to attend that evening's performance. Astonished, I asked her if the next night would not do as well. She said it would not, and when I pressed her for a reason the only one she could give was that she couldn't wait.

It was altogether too late to go to the circus that evening, so I spent the rest of it with her in the cozy library where we had passed so many happy hours. Often taking book after book from the shelves, rambling in them together and calling each other's attention to favorite passages. But, alas, there was no such enjoyment for us tonight. Margaret spoke of the books as "musty, dusty things," in which she had no interest, and insisted in talking only upon the most frivolous topics.

It is needless to say that I was not only disappointed, but shocked. Could this be my steady, well balanced, intellectual Margaret? I was inclined to doubt it. Could it be her twin sister? I knew that she had no twin sister. I endured her prattle as long as I was able; then, telling her that I had some work to do before going to bed, I rose to go.

"And you will take me to the circus tomorrow night?" she asked, with a pout.

"Certainly if you wish it," I replied, and when I could escape from an exuberance of embraces left her.

That night and the next day my brain was in a turmoil. I was like a man who had lost his love. I brooded instead of working till after office hours and in the evening called to take Margaret to the circus. The maid who received me at the door went upstairs to announce me and, returning, told me that Miss May was not feeling well and had gone to bed. There was no message of disappointment at missing the performance nor at not seeing me. Indeed, the maid told me that she thought her mistress had not expected me that evening. This would have been natural had it not been for the engagement, since it was an evening I seldom called.

The next of my usual weekly visits was Sunday, and I called, dreading to again find the hoiden. I was agreeably disappointed. Margaret was her usual self except that she showed signs of overstrained nerves. Something told me to refrain from mentioning her singular personality when I had last seen her, to wait and observe. During the visit and the next two visits she was her own sweet self, harping her sterner health. Finally I referred to her desire to visit the circus. She seemed surprised, mystified, and when I told her the whole story said with a nervous tremor, "Oh, she'll ruin me!"

"Was some one else than you with me that evening?" I asked.

"Yes—no, I was with you, but she dominated me." And she hurried out of the room.

I was not admitted to see Margaret—indeed, I did not care to see her; I was disappointed—for a month. Then I called on her. What was my surprise to find her a different person from either of the two I had known. From the moment we met she talked of women's rights, women's voting, women's superiority to men and final told me that if I interfered with her in any of these objects to which she proposed to devote her life we must proceed by separate paths.

I left her maddened. Had I not been puzzled as well I would have broken my engagement then and there, but curiosity prevented. Several months passed in which I continued to visit her, hoping that she would settle down into her old personality resolutely. When she was another I would turn away from her; when she was my own Margaret I loved her still the same. As the hoiden I found it possible to be amused with her; as the "strong minded" woman I could not endure her. I was not able to get the real Margaret to talk of the other two, but from hints she dropped I inferred that she knew of their existence, and she hated them.

One day I received a call from a psychological specialist. He informed me that Margaret was under his care; that two other personalities besides her own appeared to inhabit her body and at times dominated her. By psychic methods of his own invention he was trying to enable her to dominate them and thus return to a normal condition.

He succeeded, the intruders were driven out, and Margaret is my wife. "LAWRENCE FOSTER CHURCH."

STARVING MISER HAS $100,000

BELIEVE HUNGER HAS DRIVEN THE HERMIT INSANE.

Old Man and Brother Who Suicided
Fedded Herbs and Horrid
Every Penny They Made.

POLICE LOAD UP THE WAGON

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 13.—Peter Lehauch, a hermit living in a hovel on the hills back of Allegheny, was taken in charge by the police today because he was starving and is thought to have gone insane from hunger. When the police, accompanied by an officer from the department of charities, entered the little home on the hill they had great difficulty in moving about for money, gold and silver was everywhere.

A patrol wagon was called to haul the money and it made more than one trip. When the clerks of the Farmers' Deposit National bank of Pittsburgh quit for the day they had counted $40,000 in gold and silver which had been taken from the nooks and crannies in the home of the old miser and they have yet a lot of work ahead.

There are about 15 bags of gold, silver and pennies yet uncounted. The amount may reach $100,000. The police are tonight guarding the hovel of Lehauch as they are not satisfied that they have gotten all the money.

Brother Kill Self.

Hunger and worry over the suicide of his brother, Andrew, a year since, are thought to have driven Lehauch insane.

He and his brother were herb peddlers on the North Side and are now supposed to have hoarded every cent they ever took in.

This morning Peter became violent and attacked some little children near his home, accusing them of having placed a bit of paper in his front yard. One of the children reported the affair to her mother who sent the police after Lehauch, who fought like a maniac in his front yard until overpowered by six officers.

The old men had taken no chances on the police stumbling over his gold and he carried the battle to them outside the hovel inside of which the policemen found money in the cans, fruit jars, envelopes, pockets of old garments, trunks and boxes and almost every nook and cranny of the ramshackled dwelling. Besides the coin and bills they found bank books showing that there was about $10,000 deposited in savings banks of Pittsburgh. The brothers, it would appear, had saved up until there were no more places to hide money around the little hovel then went to the banks.

Mrs. Ida B. Chiles, of the Union Rescue Mission, who is planning to give the poor children of the city an outing at Wallace park, Friday, August 20, will be glad to be notified over either telephone of any contributions by those who are willing to assist her. Owing to the extreme heat and the many other demands on her time, she has not been able to make a general personal canvass for donations, although the responses have been generous from those on whom she was able to call.

Much more is needed, however, in the way of eatables or money than has yet been secured. The Traction company has generously tendered the use of cars for the occasion and if the good people of the city will be as generous in providing for the picnic dinner, the day can be made a grand day in the lives of these unfortunate ones for whom life seems but a continued struggle of hardship and privation.

Mrs. Chiles will answer any questions or make any explanation over the phone.

Situation.

New York, Aug. 13.—Eighteen-year-old Delight Weston is the first American woman to own a balloon. She will make her first ascension in it tomorrow at Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Weston is the daughter of E. B. Weston, president of a Torro Haute paper company and the balloon, which is of standard size, was her father's present to her at her graduation from college. Leo Stevenson, the aeronaut, who built the bag, will leave today with it for Dayton, where he will give Miss Weston her first lesson as a sky pilot.

Miss Weston was known as one of the most attractive and daring girls in college. She excelled in athletics sports, drove a racing automobile, skillfully repaired her own punctures and adjusted her own motors.

"I believe that the canal will be completed within four years," said Minister Spulkes. "There is no reason for any further delay. There are now 38,000 men at work on the canal, and they are pushing the work with great rapidity. The sanitary conditions of the canal zone are better than would be found in a northern section, where so many men are employed."

Tobacco Law Affects Retailers.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The commissioner of internal revenue has issued the following instructions to collectors of internal revenue governing the sale of natural leaf tobacco in the hands of retail dealers in leaf tobacco:

Every retail dealer in leaf tobacco will be required to keep a book and enter therein daily his purchases of leaf tobacco and his sales, where such sales amount to two pounds or more to one person in one day. Such book shall be kept written up to date and shall be in such form and contain such entries as shall be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue with the approval of the secretary of the treasury, and such book shall be open at all times for inspection of any internal revenue officer or agent.

Every retail dealer in leaf tobacco will be required to furnish at the end of each quarter of the calendar year a true and correct statement, verified by his oath or affirmation of all his daily purchases of leaf tobacco during the said quarter, giving the name and address of the person from whom purchased and the quantity purchased from each in pounds, and all his sales amounting to two pounds or more to one person in one day, with the name and residence, in each instance, of the person to whom sold and the number of pounds so sold.

Until further provision is made for such sworn statements, collectors will supply each retail dealer in leaf tobacco, registered within his district, with book No. 59, "Leaf Tobacco Record of Leaf Tobacco Purchased and Sold," which may be utilized by writing across the label on the outside of such book, and at the top of each page therein, in red ink, the words: "Retail Dealer, Form 59 affidavit as to correctness of entries in book No. 59, must be used and each book must contain the business of a single quarter only and no purchases or sales have been made during the quarter, that information should be conveyed to the collector by the return of book No. 59, properly written up, followed by the pasting on of the prescribed affidavit on form No. 539, properly executed.

The sales of retail dealers in leaf tobacco are limited and must be made in quantities of less than an original hoghead, once or bale. CROWN HEAVY ON BOY SHAH'S HEAD

MOHAMMED ALI WILL LEAVE PERSIA—SON DOWNCAST.

Nomad Tribes and Several Cities Refuse to Recognize New Government.

FROM FLIGHT TO SUICIDE

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—A dispatch received here from Teheran says that Mohammed Ali, the deposed shah of Persia, will leave the country August 17 and that the young shah, who is his favorite son, is downcast at the prospect of a separation from his parents.

According to reports current in Teheran, the youthful ruler recently made an unsuccessful attempt at flight, and when he was frustrated in this he tried to commit suicide. The government is considering the possibility of his abdication in favor of someone else.

Many complications face the new government of Persia. Several of the nomad tribes, as well as the cities of Shiraz and Kashgar, have refused to recognize it. A brother of the deposed shah, Salar-Ed-Dowleh, is marching on Teheran at the head of a Kurdish tribe from Luristan province.

Zill-Es-Sultan, an uncle of the deposed shah, who has been banished has been successful in his efforts to purchase permission to visit Teheran before leaving the country.

MAY SWEAR AT WIVES.

Chicago Judge Says She Can Not Arrest Intoxicated Husband.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Husbands may swear at their wives with impunity from arrest, according to the opinion of Municipal Judge Gemmill. Furthermore, he believes that a wife has no redress in court if her husband threatens to desert her. If the husband returns home intoxicated, the wife may not have him arrested unless he beats her.

The judge stated his position yesterday and emphasized it by refusing to issue a warrant to a wife who told the court that she believed her husband intended to leave her and that she wished him arrested.

"The statutes read that a wife can not testify against her husband except in personal violence and desertion cases," said Judge Gemmill, "and I won't issue warrants for husbands unless on one of these grounds."

GETS RICH; LOSES WIFE.

A Broken-Hearted Englishman Will Hide Himself in Alaska.

Denver, Aug. 13.—After 27 years' search for fortune, which he finally found, William W. Tolds, of Bristol, Eng., arrived in Denver on his way home only to receive here a telegram stating that his wife was dead and that the little home in the suburbs of the English city had been sold for debts.

Broken hearted, Mr. Tolds will return to Ochoz Mining Camp where he made his start there to remain, he says, until he dies.

Tolds left Bristol in 1882 during the excitement of a mineral discovery on an island off the present town of Skagway. Two years ago he made his stake. Two months ago he wrote his wife that he was coming home, a wealthy man.

Yesterday he was directed to the telegraph office and there the telegram conveying the information that his wife was dead was given him.

are several boats here waiting for a chance to be taken on the marine ways, but as they are fully occupied now it will be some time before any more boats can be taken on. Rivermen here are anxious for the building of new docks as the removal of the old ones to Helena, Ark., makes it very inconvenient to boat owners. Congressman J. K. P. McCarthy, an old boat builder, is at the head of a project to establish new docks here and will appear before the Commercial club tonight in an effort to have the plans considered and given support. It is said that the club will favor the plan and Capt. McCarthy is assured of a liberal subscription.
